

2018 Upcoming Programs, Fieldtrips/Events

February 1 st	David Almquist, Interesting & Unusual Relationships Between Insects and Plants
February 3 rd	Field trip, Suwannee Ridge Wildlife and Environmental Area
February 10 th	Angus Gholson Nature Park Workday
February 21 st	Sarracenia Chapter meeting
March 1 st	Dean & Sally Jue Common Butterfly Species of North Florida and the Native Plants they Depend Upon
March 3 rd	Field trip led by Dean & Sally Jue
March 10 th	Angus Gholson Nature Park Workday
April 5 th	A Deep Time Exploration of 300 Million Years of Native Plants and Ecosystems in Southeast North America with John Tobe
April 7 th	Field Trip to Spring Canyon and Crooked Creek Headwaters
April 10 th	Angus Gholson Nature Park Workday
April 19 th David	Gardening for Wildlife: Using Native Plant Landscapes to Restore Habitat with Mizejewski
May 3 rd	Rare, Endangered, and Endemic Wildflowers of Florida with Roger Hammer
May 5 th	Field Trip to Apalachicola National Forest
May 12 th	Angus Gholson Nature Park Workday

