

TWIN CITY NEWS

VOLUME 67 NUMBER 7

JANUARY 23, 2014

CHATTAHOOCHEE, FLORIDA 32324

50¢ (Price Includes Tax)

An Evening with the Arts, GAC's annual Winter Gala set for Saturday

Join the Gadsden Arts Center for an elegant Evening with the Arts, with jazz music provided the by the Bill Peterson Jazz Ensemble, fine food, an expanded silent auction featuring original works of art, jewelry, weekend getaways, and more!

This fundraiser, for exhibitions and educational programs, will be held Saturday, January 25, at the historic Sawano Club, in Quincy.

Tickets are $75 per person or $775 for a reserved table for eight ($50 per ticket is tax deductible. Tickets can be purchased in the Gadsden Arts Gift Shop and by phone at (850) 627-5020.

Torreya State Park will host 25th annual candlelight tour February 1st

The Florida Department of Environmental Protection's Torreya State Park will host the 25th annual Candlelight Tour Event Saturday, February 1, from 12:00 noon until sunset, EST.

Visitors will enjoy authentic blacksmith demonstrations, civil war camp along with the firing of cannons, live music with local musicians, candle dipping, turpentine displays and other exhibits. See and feel the experience of life as a Civil War camp soldier. Also, homemade chili and hot dogs will be available.

Tours of the historic Gregory House will begin at 10:00 AM and will continue. See TORREYA, page 8

Community mourns death of Angus Gholson

The world became a much duller place on January 15, 2014, as Angus Gholson, Jr., 92, passed away, but his legacy will live on forever and the knowledge, he so graciously shared, will continue to multiply, enriching future generations.

Show'n, far left, Angus, in the woods near Limestone Bluff, of course looking for a particular flower or weed, on a trip with Dr. Bob Godfrey and Curt Perry, in 1990. Below, with his wife of 70 years, Eloise.

More on Angus Gholson on page 4. Complete obituary on page 9.

At right, Angus and Speedy (later known as Speedy 1, when Speedy 2 came on board. Below, two of the beautiful specimens, discovered by and named for Angus.

Washington and Scott recognized for dedicated service to the City

At the January 7th City Council meeting, for the City of Chattahoochee, two employees were both recognized for five years of continuous dedicated service to the City. At right, Joe Scott. At left, City Manager Lee Garner presenting the service award to Washington.

PHOTOS BY KATHY S. JOHNSON

West Gadsden Historical Society will meet Sunday in Greensboro

The West Gadsden Historical Society will meet Sunday, January 26, at 3:00 PM, at the Patricia Fletcher Vice Meeting Facility, at the Greensboro AN Depot complex, located at 115 Duffie Avenue, Greensboro.

Ms. Barbara Hines, Outreach Coordinator for the North Central Region of the Florida Public Archaeology Network in Tallahassee, will be the guest speaker. Ms. Hines will share information on how historic cemeteries can be used in research and what information they can provide. She will also touch on the basics of how to properly clean and maintain historic cemeteries. The presentation also provides resources for locating professional curators and conservators to assist with historic cemetery restoration.

For more information, contact WGHNS at info@gadsdenhistory.org, or call 850-442-6434.

Dale Cox will be guest speaker at Chattahoochee Main Street meeting

Author Dale Cox will be the guest speaker at the Chattahoochee Main Street meeting, set for Monday, January 27, at 6:30 PM, at the Chattahoochee RV Park Clubhouse, on River Road.

Cox will talk about his new book, Milly Francis: The Life & Times of the Creek Poetess.

The public is cordially invited to attend...and join Chattahoochee Main Street.

COMING TOGETHER TO SERVE AND MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Annual Martin Luther King, Jr. Breakfast Monday, in Chattahoochee, well attended

